Thank you Ministry of Defence, Government of India for recognising our creative efforts on the occasion of the Republic Day and sharing it with the nation.
We believe that Your Dharma Project is the heart of this hour as the youth of the nation need to learn the cost of our freedom.

We live in a free country today. All thanks to the gallant services who laid down their lives for the sake of our independence. We salute their courage and vow to remember them and the day of returning.

Happy Republic Day!
