

1. Adopt a Continuous Improvement Model

- Plan-Do-Study-Act (PDSA) Cycle: Implement the PDSA cycle to continuously assess and improve teaching practices and administrative processes¹.
- Data-Driven Decision Making: Use data to identify areas for improvement and track progress over time².

2. Enhance Professional Development

1. Adopt a Continuous Improvement Model

Plan-Do-Study-Act (PDSA) Cycle: Implement the PDSA cycle to continuously assess and improve teaching practices and administrative processes¹.

Data-Driven Decision Making: Use data to identify areas for improvement and track progress over time².

2. Enhance Professional Development Regular Training Programs: Offer ongoing professional development opportunities for teachers and staff to keep them updated with the latest educational practices and technologies

Peer Learning and Collaboration: Encourage teachers to collaborate and share best practices through peer observations and professional learning communities.

3. Foster a Positive School Culture

We provide Inclusive Environment for Promote inclusivity and respect for diversity among students and staff.

In time being process our school is recognising and rewarding to contributions of both students and staff to boost morale and motivation.

Our school organising workshops and seminars on various educational topics to enhance teachers' skills and knowledge.

4) Create a Supportive Work Environment

Open Communication: Foster open communication between staff and administration to address concerns and suggestions.

Encourage a healthy work-life balance by providing flexible working hours and wellness programs.

5)Regular Assessments: Conduct regular assessments to evaluate the effectiveness of teaching practices and make necessary adjustments.

6). Engage Stakeholders

Parent and Community Involvement: Involve parents and the community in school activities and decision-making processes to build a strong support system.

Student Voice: Encourage students to participate in school governance and provide feedback on their learning experiences.